INFLATION THAT WOULD HAVE ROCKED U. S. WAS SPONSORED BY HOOVER, GLASS CHARGES

VAN NOSTRAND'S ACTIVITIES PROBED BY U. S. SLEUTHS

Atlanta District Inspector and His Secretary Are Suspended Pending Thorough Investigation of Graft Accusation.

U. S. RADIO CHIEF SILENT ON CHARGES

Brown Declines To Say Inspector Here Had Been Grafting on Radio Stations in This District.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Major W. Van Nostrand, radio inspector of the Atlanta district, together with his secretary, Miss Mary L. Bell, have been suspended for a period not to exceed 90 days pending an investigation of charges of "bribery and graft," it was learned at the federal radio commission here today.

Commissioner Thad Brown, who is in charge of all radio field work in the country, said that charges originally were filed against Van Nostrand and his secretary on June 21, this year, by former Secretary of Commerce Robert P. Lamont, and, after investigation, the charges were turned over to operative of the department of justice.

Asked if Van Nostrand and his secretary were suspended pending a probe of charges that they had been grafting on radio stations in the Atlanta district, Commissioner Brown said: "I cannot say at this time."

He explained that the matter was now in the hands of the bureau of investigation, department of justice, and that until the charges filed against Van Nostrand and his secretary were either proved or disproved by the investigation, he would be acting as supervisor of the Atlanta district.

As former chief counsel of the radio commission, Commissioner Brown is thoroughly familiar with all legal problems connected with radio administrative work, and it is expected that after the justice department investigation has been completed Van Nostrand will be reinstated.

Hoover Is Declared Enemy of Forestry

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The National Popular Government League in a statement Monday said that "since forestry became recognized in America, probably no presidential administration has been so definitely hostile to the true interests of forest and forest conservation as has the administration of Herbert Hoover."

The charges against his conservation activities and inactivities may be grouped under four headings: (1) the statement said, enumerating them as "continued, unchecked devastation of the private forests," lack of co-operation from the president's own secretary of agriculture, "unwise reorganization" and "the sacrifice of the public domain."

EXPERTS DISCUSS NEW BRIDGE RULES

The new contract rules which went into effect yesterday are discussed by Harold S. Vanderbilt, father of contract, in page 10 of this issue.

Already bridge experts see some of the changes the new rules will bring to the game. They will intensify, for one thing, the difference between two rival systems that now have wide followings—the Culbertson and Sims systems. Starting in this issue the Associated Press will present a series of three articles outlining the differences between the two bidding systems, valuable guides to a host of players. The first article, also in page 10, is by Tom O'Neill, Associated Press bridge expert, who arranged the series; the second by P. Hal Sims himself; and the third by William J. Hinkle, editor-in-chief, for Ely Culbertson.

GOVERNOR ORDERS 14 PER CENT SLASH IN COSTS OF STATE

Probed with an estimated loss of $1,400,000 in state revenue, brought about chiefly by large reductions in property valuations, Governor Richard B. Russell Jr., as chairman of the state budget commission, Tuesday issued an order slashing the appropriations of all state departments "14 per cent until further notice."

Appropriation Cut, Effective Immediately, Will Affect Funds of All Departments.

The budget bureau, in ordering the reduction, acted under authority given it in an act of the 1931 legislature which declares that the bureau may prohibit state agencies from spending more than the state's revenue regardless of appropriations.

All state agencies were informed that if they found it impossible to comply with the regulation during the remaining two months of the year that revenue expended over their allotment would be charged to their 1933 appropriations.

Many of the governmental agencies have been anticipating the reduction and the board of control, and many of the department heads have been expecting it for a much longer period. Mr. Russell said the 1933 act covered appropriations for 1932 and 1933 and that there was no immediate prospect of increased revenue.

Valuations of property in the state have decreased approximately $120,000,000, Mr. Russell said. One county, Wayne, reported a decrease of not in excess of 10 per cent could be met without difficulty. It could not be learned Tuesday what these two counties were.

Body Sent to Hotel After Deliberating on Case for Two Hours.

After hearing a portion of the eyewitness testimony read by the court stenographer, the jury in the case of Howard Curtis, 26, barber, at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday night was sent to a hotel for the night, unable to agree on a verdict as to Curtis' guilt or innocence of the murder of Miss Annette Bryant, a waitress in the Fox cafe on Bankhead avenue.

The testimony read to the jury was that of Joe Wade, 15, who swore that he saw Curtis standing with the gun in his hand as Miss Bryant fell to the ground. The defense placed Wade on the stand only to claim, after testimony, that the witness had been "tripped" by the police.

The defense alleged that Wade had signed an affidavit stating that he did not know whether Curtis or Miss Bryant had the gun. Claimed by an alienist as being neither sane nor insane, but in a "twilight zone," Curtis Tuesday night did not betray any nervousness as he waited for a verdict. Instead, he smiled and chatted pleasantly, laughing occasionally.

Judge John D. Humphries, in addition to charging the jury on the law of murder, gave the law on insanity. If the jury finds Curtis insane, he will be freed, as the defense offered a motion.

Jobless of Britain Repulsed In Thrust Against Commons

LONDON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Thousands of rioting unemployed men and women and their sympathizers fought a series of savage battles with mounted and foot police for more than three hours tonight in many of the chief streets of London.

The sharpest fighting occurred when groups of mounted men charged mobs in Trafalgar Square, Pall Mall, the Strand, Whitehall and Victoria embankment. Many persons were arrested and scores were injured.

The riots were the bitter conclusion of six days of uneasiness in London resulting from the columns of hunger marchers who converged on the capital from all parts of the island to protest against the method in which the government dole is administered.

Try to Storm Commons.

The hunger marchers sought to present their case at the bar of the house of commons. In obedience to

Fourth Light Frost of Season Arrives Today With Drop to 38

The fourth light frost of the season will visit Atlanta this morning, bringing a hint of the first killing frost, which is yet to come, George W. Minding, United States meteorologist said Tuesday. Today will be fair, with cold weather this morning succeeded by warm temperatures during the afternoon, the observer said.

A minimum of 38 or 40 degrees is expected this morning and the thermometer will rise to about 68 degrees this afternoon. On Tuesday the mercury remained within the fifties, ranging from 50 to 55.

The Chattahoochee is rising rapidly under the influence of rains of several days ago and the river probably will come within a foot or so of flood stage before it starts to go down, the observer said.

Although Atlanta had only an inch of rain Monday, reports received Tuesday from other points showed 3.15 inches at Alaga, Ala.; 4.76 inches at Blakely, Ga.; 2.39 inches at Norcross, 2.68 inches at Gainesville, 4 inches at Thomasville and 2.66 inches at Savannah.

Tuesday's chilly weather was due to cold winds from the northwest, the wind being scheduled to cease early this morning. The storm over eastern Texas Monday moved northward toward the Mississippi and Ohio valleys and in the central and western Gulf states, the bureau reported.

CHEST FUND SHY, LEADERS APPEAL FOR PUBLIC'S AID

Redoubled Efforts on Part of Workers Urged; $384,041 Raised Falls Far Short of Goal Set.

Definitely short of the goal of $500,000 needed to care for 45,000 needy people this winter, workers and leaders in the Community Chest campaign met at the final luncheon meeting Tuesday to hear reports that the Chest subscriptions are considerably short of the mark and that the $100,000 emergency relief fund lacks $51,000 of its total. Total combined subscriptions were brought to $384,041 in the day's reports. Redoubled efforts on the part of workers and sympathetic co-operation of the public were urged by campaign leaders.

New subscriptions announced by division chairmen at the final meeting totaled $33,964, according to consolidated figures given out by Chest officials.

New donations reported by Robert H. Martin, chairman of the groups division, amounted to $13,072; by Lee Potter, for the individuals' division, $15,546, and by Mrs. Preston Arkwright, chairman of the women's division, $3,045. The colored division reported $1,301.

Features of many reports Tuesday indicated that employees of several concerns have subscribed 100 per cent, several of them increases over last year's donations.

Permeated with enthusiasm and confidence, the final meeting was opened by the Rev. Herman L. Turner, president. Dr. D. P. McGeechey, pastor of the Decatur Presbyterian church, gave the invocation and Harry Stark led community singing. Dr. Turner complimented all workers and leaders and Dr. McGeechey, chairman of the churches division, reported on his work.

Thanking newspapers for "generous aid," commending all workers and lauding the generous spirit of contributors, Dr. Turner closed the meeting.

JURY IS UNDECIDED ON FATE OF CURTIS

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The National City Bank of New York threw the spotlight of its researches on politics in its monthly economic survey today and found that there is "no basis for prejudice or anxiety."

The review observed that in campaign speeches the history of the depression and the record of each party has been raked over in a manner sometimes disturbing, but, it added, this raking over had tended to obscure the important fact that both parties have taken the conservative side of the major issues.

Common sense has prevailed throughout all the business distress the nation has undergone, said the review, and while "economic panaceas" in such a program must be the balancing of budgets through reduction of expenditure.

What was seen as the "most notable aspect" of the present election campaign was "the inroad made by both candidates and party platforms of the principles of economy and sound money. They are alike in recognizing the importance of balancing the budget, and there is no agitation of the money question among the leaders of chief influence within either party."

Wheat Continues Precipitate Drop

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Wheat prices plunged to new low records again today for the fourth time within a week. The December delivery sold at 42 7/8 cents a bushel in the first 15 minutes of trading here, the lowest price in the history of organized marketing and one that could not be equaled since 1870.

Prices were lower on initial dealings, weakness of securities in New York and distress selling of Canadian wheat furnishing the downward impetus.

Advices from Liverpool were discouraging. The Argentine was reported offering new crop wheat urgently, but the chief unsettling factor was the decision reached by the British house of commons that Canadian wheat shipped to England through United States ports should not enjoy the benefits of the British preferential tariff.

Boy, 7, Hit by Auto, Succumbs at Grady

Struck by an automobile as he was returning home from his first day in school Tuesday afternoon, Jack Griffith, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Griffith, of Constitution road, died at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at Grady hospital. P. A. Pullin, of McDonough, alleged driver of the car, was released Tuesday night under $1,000 bond.

Jack and a friend, David Horton, also of Constitution road, were going home from the Lakewood Heights county grammar school, according to reports to county police. They were hanging on the back of a wagon driven by Odell George, of Jonesboro road. At the intersection of Jonesboro and Constitution, both boys jumped from the vehicle. Pullin's car struck young Griffith as the boy darted across the road, it was said. County police, who investigated, said the boy was knocked 30 feet.

Jack received internal injuries, serious cuts and bruises on the head and a fracture of the right leg, it was said. The Interstate Life and Accident Company.

Registration of 47,000,000 Shatters Record by Millions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Others the registration actually has dropped off for various reasons. Excepting Pennsylvania, all states with large electoral votes show higher registrations.

Segregation of eligible voters according to parties was not possible in most states, although in Pennsylvania the "democratic registration" fell off while the republican figure established a new high. Women registration there accounted for the entire 50,000 decrease. On the other hand, in President Hoover's home state of California, the republicans gained only 20,000, while the democrats rolled up an increase of 570,000.

All of those entitled to vote will not do so, of course, a study of previous elections reveals a normal stay-at-home vote of 15 per cent. This year the experts differ as to the percentage which will not exercise the voting privilege. Some figure it higher, others lower.

If the 15 per cent normal basis is used, the actual vote next week would be close to 40,000,000 or 30,000,000.

Royal Romance Rumored

London was abuzz Tuesday with rumors that the engagement of Britain's Prince George and Sweden's Princess Ingrid (shown above) would be announced at a royal "get-together" on November 11. Gossip of several months ago had it that the match would be between Ingrid and the Prince of Wales, but now it seems that the younger prince is the lucky one. Story in page 17.

New York Financial Institution Finds There Is "No Basis for Anxiety"—Defeat of Hoover Will Not Affect Business Recovery.

DR. RYLAND KNIGHT IS SLATED TO HEAD MERGED CHURCHES

Second Baptist Pastor Will Get Call; Amalgamation To Be Completed Next Week.

Assurance that the merger of the Ponce de Leon and Second Baptist churches will be formally completed at the next meeting of a joint committee early next week was voiced by leaders in the two organizations Tuesday, following unanimous endorsement of a resolution authorizing the committee to issue a call to Dr. Ryland Knight, pastor of the Second church, to head the new church.

The date of the next committee meeting has not been announced, but members said it will be held as early in the week as possible. Both churches have in both churches expressed confidence that nothing new remains in the way of complete harmony.

"It appears to me," said Colonel Frederick J. Paxon, of the Second Baptist, "that everything is running smoothly and I see no reason why we should not complete the merger at the next committee meeting." Other leaders in both churches expressed confidence that nothing new remains in the way of complete harmony.

Impetus was added to a swift completion of plans Sunday morning when Dr. Luther Rice Christie, pastor of the Ponce de Leon church, presented a resolution to his congregation which, after unanimous endorsement, empowered the joint committee to call Dr. Knight as the new pastor. He said it was his wish and had been "a dream for a long time."

Church leaders Tuesday pointed out that Dr. Christie started the movement for the merger last April and had, through untiring work, guided the consolidation to its present status.

George M. Brown, of the Ponce de Leon church, chairman of the joint committee, said he would name the date of the meeting as soon as possible.

U. S. PLIGHT LAID TO ECONOMIC WAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—New York City Mayor LaGuardia expressed confidence "that if Governor Roosevelt is elected president he will surround himself with the brains and characters that were praised in the great days of the great Wilson tradition."

The secretary of war of the Wilson administration, speaking in a packed Brooklyn hall before a cheering, howling crowd estimated by police at 5,000, called for a "change" by the election of the Roosevelt-Garner ticket.

"I do not believe it possible," he said, "for Mr. Hoover and his associates, having proclaimed their idolatry of high finance, to face a world which is in the process of liquidation and reorganization with any hopefulness of their ultimate achievement."

And I have a serene confidence that when the 8th of November shall have come and gone, and when the country will realize that Franklin Roosevelt and John Garner have been chosen, as it will realize, that there will gather around them in Washington the brains and the characters that were praised in the great days of the great Wilson tradition, that constructive measures will be fabricated for the relief of the nation.

NEW ENGLANDERS BRAVE HEAVY RAIN TO CHEER FOR 'F. D.'

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Franklin D. Roosevelt came back to the executive mansion tonight from a three-day campaign swing by automobile that took him into every New England state.

The trip marked the first time that any candidate has made so long a campaign journey by automobile. It took the democratic presidential candidate more than 700 miles through Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, back across Massachusetts and through Rhode Island and Connecticut.

The last two days of the journey swept him to hearty welcomes in Portland and Boston and through a succession of applauding throngs in various Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut towns.

For many miles in Rhode Island and Massachusetts today the candidate's automobile crept through lines of drenched persons who stood in a pelting rain to catch a glimpse of Mr. Roosevelt and hear him say a few words.

Before daylight, however, the rain that had begun to fall in Providence and had become a driving downpour at Worcester had died away and a cold wind whipped his caravan across Connecticut and back up into New York.

One of the most colorful spectacles of his campaign was presented at Worcester, where a huge crowd stood in a pelting rain to see Mr. Roosevelt and hear him speak a few words of greeting. Hundreds of persons but died under umbrellas while the rain streamed down them and sent rivulets streaming down the streets.

From the upper windows of a knitting mill scores of workers crowded into the windows to look down upon the candidate, and the street of a Salem Square, and the street of a church near by was covered with men and women seeking a glimpse of him from the comparative shelter it afforded.

Thousands of persons lined the streets of Providence and crowded into the space before the city hall to cheer his passage. He stopped but a few minutes there before traveling on out past the hall where Alfred E. Smith spoke only a few days ago.

The rain was just starting at Providence, but it had no apparent effect on the crowd. Paper, confetti and President Taken To Task by Senator for Failure To Reveal Gold Crisis If One Existed, as He Said in Speech.

STATE DEPARTMENT SCORED ON BONDS

Financial Expert Says Government Was Directly Responsible for Unloading of Shaky Issues.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Senator Glass, of Virginia, tonight said the President Hoover submitted to the last congress "inflationary proposals that would have rocked the foundations of our banking system."

In his first speech of the campaign, released by the democratic national committee in advance of its delivery over the radio the former secretary of the treasury and second ranking democrat on the senate banking committee, assailed the Hoover administration and urged the election of Franklin D. Roosevelt to the presidency.

Senator Glass buried a parting bombshell into the enemy's camp when, in closing his address, he said: "I am advised that President Hoover's secretary of the treasury today obtained an advance copy of my speech by some means which it does not concern me to explain, but which involves a breach of confidence disdained by every honorable newspaperman in the nation. I am also told Mr. Mills, having procured a copy of my speech in this way, is to answer me on the radio tonight. If that is his conception of courage and courtesy in debate, I am glad it is his and not mine. Had secretary Mills desired a debate with me in the open, where each could give and take blow for blow, he would have experienced no difficulty in getting acquainted; but if he prefers the back-stairs method of controversy, he is at liberty to make that choice. I prefer to keep my rapier clean and play the game as gentlemen in their code of ethics require."

He denied statements of President Hoover and his supporters that economic troubles had their origin in "democracy" and the republican assertion that democrats impeded administration efforts to balance the budget and improve business. In addition he said for measures that could have been enacted only with democratic co-operation.

Of the inflationary proposals which he attributed to the president, he said

Registration of 47,000,000 Shatters Record by Millions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Others the registration actually has dropped off for various reasons. Excepting Pennsylvania, all states with large electoral votes show higher registrations.

Segregation of eligible voters according to parties was not possible in most states, although in Pennsylvania the "democratic registration" fell off while the republican figure established a new high. Women registration there accounted for the entire 50,000 decrease. On the other hand, in President Hoover's home state of California, the republicans gained only 20,000, while the democrats rolled up an increase of 570,000.

All of those entitled to vote will not do so, of course, a study of previous elections reveals a normal stay-at-home vote of 15 per cent. This year the experts differ as to the percentage which will not exercise the voting privilege. Some figure it higher, others lower.

If the 15 per cent normal basis is used, the actual vote next week would be close to 40,000,000 or 30,000,000.

Services were conducted by the Rev. David Cady Wright, D. D., rector of the church, and the Rev. B. McGlothin, retired Episcopal priest. Interment was in Bonaventure cemetery.

VETS' REPORT SCORES LARGE LADIES' STAFFS

Honorary Appointments Critiqued at Annual Reunion in Quitman.

QUITMAN, Ga., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Appointment of "large" honorary staffs of women at Confederate reunions came in for criticism Tuesday in the report of the adjutant to the reunion of the Georgia division in session here.

"It has come to the attention of your adjutant," the report said, "that a very strong feeling exists against the continued appointment by your major general and his four brigadiers general of large ladies' staffs."

This has been an embarrassing feature to these officers, who because of precedence feared to make any radical change, desiring not to wound the feelings of anyone.

The report was submitted by T. S. Clay, of Savannah, a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans and assistant to the adjutant of the Georgia division of Confederate veterans. T. P. Ravenel, of Savannah, Clay's report recommended that "this convention carefully consider the number to be appointed to the ladies' staffs with a view of correcting a too large a staff for future reunions."

Guests of Woman's Club.
The two-day convention of the Georgia division got under way with preliminary ceremonies at the Baptist church. At noon the veterans were guests at a Brooke county products dinner. Tuesday night the visitors were guests of the Woman's Club and the Eastern Star at a supper in the Masonic temple, followed by a reception and program in which the soldiers participated.

A full day's program of activities has been arranged for Wednesday and in addition to business sessions will include sight-seeing trips and the Confederate ball Wednesday night.

The report of the adjutant said 13 Confederate veterans' camps have been restored during the year and said reports from 55 camps list a membership of 323, while pension rolls show about 950 veterans.

"It will be seen, therefore, that only about one-third of our Georgia veterans are members of our division. The cause of this is found in inactive and dead camps, which renders it imperative that some step must be taken whereby these camps shall be reinstated and the present active camps kept alive if we are to maintain our organization."

The adjutant recommended that the committee on finance consider ways and means whereby the treasury will be adequate to care for "the needs of the division during the next few years in providing for the printing, stationery and current expenses of the division and the usual publishing of the reports of the annual reunions."

A third recommendation was that this reunion ignore the action taken at the general reunion in Richmond "and urge all camps to solicit the assistance of an active and competent adjutant from among the Sons or Daughters of the U. C. V."

Inactive Camps Listed.
Clay said that "on October 27 I appeared before the U. C. V. convention in Bainbridge, Ga., and made a plea for the keeping up of the camps and the resolution recently passed by the general reunion of the U. C. V. at Richmond, Va., and hope for re-

Ft. Benning Negro Regiment, Noted For Heroism, Observes Birthday

PORT BENNING, Ga., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Distinguished for its heroism in many fields, the 24th infantry, one of the nation's crack regiments of negro soldiers, observed its 63d birthday today.

The glamorous history of the regiment, which won world-wide distinction at the battle of San Juan Hill in the Spanish-American War, was related at brief exercises held at the Service Club on this huge military reservation.

The day was observed as a holiday on orders of Colonel Fred L. Munson, regimental commander, and after the exercises the companies enjoyed special dinners to which their families were invited.

Colonel Munson, Lieutenant Colonel Franklin L. Whittier, Major Peter P. Salgado, commander of the first battalion, and Major Roger E. Harrison, commander of the second battalion, all white men, are ranking officers of the 24th infantry.

It was Colonel Munson who reviewed the history of the regiment. The exercises were opened by Lieutenant Colonel Louis A. Carter, colored, chaplain. Sergeant William McCauley, Company B, oldest man of the regiment, also was a speaker.

The history of the regiment includes episodes of valiant service at frontier posts in the Indian campaigns, although the regiment's participation in the Spanish-American War, the occupation of the Philippines, and the occupation of Germany during the World War, but it furnished many special troops and non-commissioned officers for negro organizations which were sent to France.

In peace time as in war time, the regiment holds proudly its motto: "Semper Paratus" (always ready). It is one of the important units at the infantry school here.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that the next step in obtaining the proposed paving be left up to the road commissioners and legislators of the county concerned; that the officials of Augusta and civic leaders and the Augusta Chronicle are ready to unite in plans deemed advisable to secure the roads, and that the county commissioners attempt to work out a deferred payment plan to finance the work.

The committee appointed to confer with Captain Barnett is composed of Major W. D. Jennings, of Augusta; L. S. Moody, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; J. Frank Carver, William H. Lester, Roy W. Harris, W. D. Lanier, James L. Cartledge, Thomas J. Hamilton, of the Augusta Chronicle; George Homer Legg, Lincoln; Senator J. H. Boykin, James W. T. Dunaway, L. C. Grover, of Lincoln; Randall R. Evans and Judge L. O. McWhorter, of Lincoln; Hamilton McWhorter and Abe Smith, of Oglethorpe; Representative Abney, of Clarke county, and several delegates from Wilkes county.

One witness was introduced by the state Tuesday before the plea was entered. He was Aubrey Liffey, who told of the slaying of Hand.

SIX GEORGIA COUNTIES URGE ROUTE 47 PAVING

ROAD ENTHUSIASTS AT MEETING
Name Group To Confer
With Barnett.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 1.—(AP)—At a meeting here today of road enthusiasts from Richmond and six adjoining counties it was decided to send a delegation to Atlanta to confer with J. W. Barnett, chairman of the state highway commission regarding paving of two highways considered vital to this section.

Pembroke Pope, of Washington, took the high chair in a telephone conversation that the delegation would insist that the board fulfill "promises made August 10" by letting contracts for grading and paving Route No. 47 in Lincoln county and paving of 22 miles of road on the Thomson-Washington highway.

Pope said the purpose of the delegation was to co-operate with the highway official, and if possible assist him in furthering the project.

Pope said, however, that Barnett had advised him that a conference at present would be useless, and that the highway chairman had said he was making an effort to secure additional funds and if he was successful would be glad to confer with the delegates next week.

A resolution was adopted to the effect that the next step in obtaining the proposed paving be left up to the road commissioners and legislators of the county concerned; that the officials of Augusta and civic leaders and the Augusta Chronicle are ready to unite in plans deemed advisable to secure the roads, and that the county commissioners attempt to work out a deferred payment plan to finance the work.

DR. E. W. STONE DIES AT HOME IN NEWMAN

NATIVE OF VIRGINIA WAS ONE OF LEADING BAPTIST MINISTERS IN STATE.

NEWMAN, Ga., Nov. 1.—Dr. E. W. Stone died at his residence here Tuesday. He was one of the leading Baptist ministers of the state and for many years was active in denominational affairs, both in the state and in the local work of the Western Baptist Association. His longest pastorate in the state was as pastor of the First Baptist church of Newman, which he served for 15 years.

Dr. Stone was a native of Montgomery county, Virginia and an alumnus of Richmond College and received his theological training at Rochester Theological Seminary. He served churches in New York, New Jersey and for more than eight years was pastor of the church at New Haven, Conn., from which he moved to the pastorate of Emmanuel Baptist church, Richmond, Va., which he served until 1908. He served other churches in Virginia and North Carolina and came to Georgia about 20 years ago. Most of his active ministry was as pastor of the First Baptist church of Newman, Ga. Dr. Stone's death followed an illness of more than three years, and besides his widow he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Helen Love and Miss Eugenia Stone, both of Newman.

The funeral services will be held from the First Baptist church here by the pastor, the Rev. F. D. King, and Dr. Luther Rice Christie, of Atlanta, assisted by Dr. Aquila Chambliss, president of Bessemer College, Forsyth. Interment will be in the Oak Hill cemetery here.

MACON WOMEN PRISONERS FREED.
MACON, Ga., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Women prisoners at the city stockade, nine in number, were happy Tuesday night. Mayor Glen Toole ordered release of all the women "for economic reasons." All were first offenders. The nine women, according to the mayor, proved an added expense in maintaining the prison.

INSURERS TO MEET WITH FIRE BOARD

Underwriters Will Attend Meeting Tonight. Civic Clubs Plan Probe.

Representatives of the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the Southeastern Underwriters' Association will attend the meeting of the Atlanta board of firemasters at 7:30 o'clock tonight at fire headquarters. It was announced Tuesday by Mayor James L. Key.

At the same time it was learned that representatives of Atlantic civic clubs will consider a report of the national board of firemasters, the personnel of the fire department and council were seated at a meeting to be held at 12:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

"We want to see if the criticisms of the national board are true," said James L. Key, "and have arranged this meeting of civic leaders to look into the matter. If they are true, something should be done."

TWO AMERICAN GIRLS TO EXPLORE JUNGLES

GIAYAGUIL, Ecuador, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Miss Violet Olsen and Miss Marian Gillespie, American girls, arrived from New York today to explore the eastern Ecuadorian jungles.

Veteran Mail Carrier Honored

Thirty-seven years of letter-carrying through heat, cold, snow and sleet were concluded early this week by W. R. Sannett, 65, of 906 Arlington place, N. E., route carrier at the Atlanta main postoffice. Mr. Sannett's lengthy service in the local postoffice was honored by his fellow workers with the presentation of a handsome gold watch. The presentation was made by Postmaster E. K. Large, shown at the left above, who felicitated Mr. Sannett on his fine record. Staff photo by George Cornett.

Edwards Discourses on Technique At Opening of Theater Workshop

Several scores attended the opening session at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon of the Theater Workshop, which is to be a weekly event on Tuesday evenings at the Erlanger theater. Rowland G. Edwards, producer for the Permanent Players and director of the Workshop, spoke on the necessity for technique in any branch of theater activity. He showed how the man or woman, even though inspired with genuine gifts for the theater, was helpless until he or she had learned the technique of the profession.

"Acting," said Mr. Edwards, "is divided into two broad divisions, conception and projection. The actor must, first of all, have the background, the imagination and the education to be able to conceive the idea he wishes to portray to his audience. Then he must have the ability, the knowledge, in short the technique, to be able to project that idea into the mental consciousness of his audience."

Be Prepared To Receive Share Of $150,000 Accident Insurance

Over $150,000 is a lot of money, and it means even more when it comes at a time when tragedy has stalked into a family circle and expenses are heavy; when the children's future must be considered, and when the breadwinner is slain or incapacitated. No man or woman can tell when tragedy will single him or her out. You may be killed today or tomorrow in some kind of a train wreck, automobile accident, or as a pedestrian when you are walking the streets.

Fulton County Taxes Illegal, Suit Charges

An injunction to restrain collection of 22.9 mills of the 1932 Fulton county tax rate of 110 mills, involving $653,902.46 in taxes, was sought Tuesday in a petition filed by the J. G. McCrory Company in Fulton superior court, on the grounds that the levies complained of are illegal. Judge G. H. Howard issued a rule nisi against the county commission and W. S. Richardson, tax collector, returnable Saturday.

TIRE DEALERS MEET HERE IS PLANNED

The final details of the plans for the National Tire Dealers' Association convention to be held in Atlanta on November 14, 15 and 16 are now being completed. Norval P. Trimborn, of Chicago, Ill., secretary-manager of the association, arrived in Atlanta last week and has been making his headquarters at the Atlanta Biltmore since that time. Mr. Trimborn will spend his time between now and the convention in Atlanta and the surrounding territory, devoting practically all of his efforts to the convention.

GEORGIA LEADING ROOSEVELT DRIVE

Workers Spurred by Report That State Tops National League List.

News that the Georgia division of the Roosevelt Business and Professional League leads the nation, announced at Tuesday afternoon's meeting of Fulton county volunteers by Charles B. Shelton, Georgia state chairman, spurred workers to renewed efforts to hold the lead already gained until the membership list is closed.

Information to the effect that Georgia is now leading was relayed to all circuit and county chairmen by Mr. Shelton immediately upon receipt of a telegram of congratulations from Admiral W. B. Franklin, executive vice president of the league.

As Mr. Shelton's appeal went forward Ryburn G. Clay, director of finance for Georgia, announced encouraging reports from many county finance directors.

PROBATED PRISONER TO RETURN TO PEN

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The United States fifth circuit court of appeals ruled in a decision handed down today that when a probation is revoked the sentence given a defendant is final and provisions of the probation are exhausted.

The decision was rendered in granting a mandamus asked by the district attorney of the southern district federal court of Florida requiring the district judge to execute a 12 months' sentence given Paul Antinori at Tampa for conviction of violation of the national prohibition act.

Wilson Trial Opens, Jurors Are Selected

Trial of H. P. Wilson for the murder of Herman Thomas started Tuesday afternoon before Judge Blanton Fortson, of Athens, visiting judge in Fulton superior court. Selection of the jury was followed by testimony of only one witness before adjournment for the day.

The jury includes Levi W. Reeves Jr., F. G. Ray, W. M. Otey, J. M. Weiser, J. W. Lee, M. A. Birdett, J. G. Mock, W. M. Padgett, F. W. Brooke, Langdon C. Quinn, J. W. Story and W. T. Brown. Wilson is said to have shot Thomas when the latter jumped on his automobile when Wilson returned from a ride with Mrs. Thomas, on July 29.

U. S. CUTS OFF PAY, SO ENGINEER QUILTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(UP)—Major General William L. Sibert, retired army engineer, who labored seven years to push construction of the Panama canal to completion, resigned today as chairman of the Colorado river advisory board of engineers. He left his important work on the Hoover dam because an act of congress deprived him of any salary—the only one of the engineers involved who would have been so situated. The economy bill provided that any army officer whose retirement pay was more than $3,000 annually could not receive the $50 a day the government usually pays consulting engineers. Sibert is in that classification. The remainder of the engineers on the board are civilian employees, unaffected by the economy bill.

Cross-Blending

WHAT IS IT... and how does it improve cigarette taste?

YOU'VE heard how fruit of one variety has been crossed with fruit of another to produce a new and more pleasing flavor. The loganberry, for example, is a cross between the raspberry and the blackberry.

Chesterfield's Cross-Blend gets the same result—better taste—by a different method.

It welds together the different kinds of several varieties of tobacco. Many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco, and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco are all merged into one—Chesterfield tobacco.

This welding or Cross-Blending goes beyond ordinary blending or mixing tobaccos together. It actually makes every kind of tobacco in Chesterfield partake of the qualities of every other type.

It's the Cross-Blending of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos that gives Chesterfields a distinctive, better taste.

They are milder. They have a flavor and aroma which, we believe, you will like.

Trade Commission Told
That Purchase Price Far
Exceeded Assets.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The trade commission received testimony today that the Union Gas and Electric Company, in acquiring the Ohio Gas and Electric Company, in 1925, paid $500,560 more than the ledger value of the net assets.

Melvin S. Anderson, an examiner testified that both companies were controlled by the Columbia Gas and Electric Company and that the assets acquired were valued at $2,857,575 and the liabilities assumed amounted to $1,220,344. He continued:

"The consideration paid for the above net assets exceeded the ledger value of the net assets by the amount of $500,560.41 and this excess was added to the ledger value of the plant account in recording the assets and liabilities on the books of the Union company."

"The plant account, which had a ledger value of $1,975,425.57 on the books of the Ohio Gas and Electric Company, was recorded at a ledger value of $2,857,575.48 on the books of the Union company, and all other assets acquired and liabilities assumed were recorded on the books of the Union company at their ledger value on the books of the Ohio Gas and Electric Company."

"This purchase and issue of securities therefor was authorized by the public utilities commission of Ohio. Earlier the examiner said the investment of the Columbia corporation in the Huntington (W. Va.) Gas Company, before deducting federal income taxes, yielded a return of 137 per cent in 1925, 46 in 1926, 52 in 1927 and 30 in 1928.

Testifying on another subsidiary of the Columbia system, which operates in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia, Anderson said the Columbia Gas Construction Company earned $201,580 from September through December, 1928.

The examiner added that a cash dividend of $150 a share was declared on December 23, 1929, which on 1,000 shares of common stock outstanding amounted to $150,000.

HELEN AND CAROL SETTLE DISPUTE OVER PRINCELY SON

BUCHAREST, Rumania, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Negotiations to settle the troubled relations between King Carol and his divorced wife, Princess Helen, were completed today.

The former queen gave a formal audience to Premier Iuliu Maniu and Foreign Minister Nicholas Titulescu, and at its conclusion the government issued a communique in which Helen was referred to as "her majesty."

It was privately reported the government had agreed to permit Helen to visit Rumania whenever she desired, providing she gave notice of her plans in order that a residence might be arranged for her.

Princess Michael, it was understood, will be allowed to visit his mother abroad one month during each vacation period, but they must spend this time in Switzerland. The government also is understood to have consented to pay Helen 15,000 lei (about $30,000) due her from the sale of her castle, Mamina, on the Black sea.

TWO DAIRYMEN FINED IN BOTTLE VIOLATION

Two Atlanta dairymen were fined $10 and costs and four others who failed to appear in recorder's court were charged with contempt Tuesday afternoon on charges of violating the recently enacted city ordinance making it against the law for one dairyman to use milk bottles belonging to other distributors.

J. T. Waldrop and C. B. Dixon were those fined, and contempt charges were made against J. E. Wells, of Route 5, Cliff South, of 252 Forsyth street, S. W.; J. E. Mills, Route 1, and Tarlton Dukes, of Lakewood Heights, who failed to answer copies of charges made against them.

CAROLINAN INDICTED FOR TRIPLE MURDER

HERTFORD, N. C., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Three slayings which stirred Perquimans county last summer today had resulted in as many murder charges against Benny Lamb.

He was indicted by the grand jury for the deaths of Clyde Elliott and his wife, shot from ambush July 30, and Linford Chappell, 30, who was said by officers to have participated in the attack on the Elliotts.

Chappell was killed August 1, and authorities were seeking to arrest him in the Elliott case when his body was found.

Bean Growers Strike For Increased Prices

OREGON, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Bean growers of the fertile Lake Okeechobee farming area were to go on strike tonight against further harvest of their crop, one of the largest in history, until such time as prices rise higher than the present level.

The growers, declaring that they are unable to make a living profit at the present prices for their product, declared at a meeting yesterday they would make no further bean shipments until at least the first of the week.

The growers maintained that prices ranging from 25 cents a bushel for prime grades to 45 cents a bushel for prime quality beans were far too low, and that they needed $1 a bushel to make a living profit.

Taxes and Government Costs Hit by Brand In Address Before Fertilizer Association

Taxes and government expenditures threaten to plunge the United States into bankruptcy, Charles J. Brand, of Washington, D. C., executive secretary and treasurer of the National Fertilizer Association, Inc., told officers and delegates to the eighth southern convention of that organization, which began a two-day session Tuesday at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

"A nation," said Mr. Brand, "can no more go on indefinitely spending more than its income and remain solvent than can an individual. In fact, the chances for the individual are better than they are for the nation, as it must take its income from the taxpayer, and each new payment of taxes weakens the source of revenue."

Criticizing the theory that vast public construction projects will lessen the unemployment situation, Mr. Brand said:

"If it were practicable to speed up federal construction expenditure to a rate of $1,000,000,000 for the coming year, and if annual income were as much as $500,000,000, which no one expects, the expenditure per capita would be $8 for all of the people; approximately $25 for those still gainfully employed, and less than $100 for those unemployed."

"It has been assumed that if building construction sufficient to put 500,000 unemployed construction workers to work were undertaken, additional employment for 1,000,000 workers would be furnished through the industries supplying the construction industry. Thus a total of 1,500,000 workers would find jobs. But this is less than one-sixth of our total unemployed. Even as low a wage as $5 a day would require the expenditure of $2,500,000,000 a year to keep this 1,500,000 at work if construction work were to be an important reliance for emergency employment."

"The question arises instantly that if such an enormous sum were spent to put 1,500,000 idle persons to work what would become of the remainder of approximately 9,000,000 unemployed?"

Dealing with the agricultural outlook, the speaker said that virtually the entire annual production of fertilizer in America is purchased by the farmers of this country.

"Of this total," he pointed out, "the farmers resident in the states from Virginia to east Texas, including Tennessee and Arkansas, consume more than 65 per cent. Of their consumption 45 per cent is applied normally to the cotton crop; in fact, 30 per cent of the total fertilizer used in the United States is applied in the first instance to cotton."

Bayless W. Haynes, of Jacksonville, president of the association, presided over the session Tuesday. In addition to Secretary Brand, William S. Elliott, of Canton, president of the Georgia Bankers' Association, also delivered an address.

In his talk, the Canton banker praised the live-at-home program and especially the work of the agricultural colleges, experiment stations and extension services in teaching better methods of production, better marketing practices and better living, and told how the bankers' associations have co-operated in this program. He said he believed "we are on the upturn, the worst of the depression is behind us, and the day is coming when genuine prosperity shall again hold sway in the south."

Members of the association were guests at the annual convention dinner Tuesday night at the Biltmore, at which Governor-designate Eugene Talmadge and Commissioner of Agriculture-elect G. C. Adams were speakers.

Mr. Talmadge told the delegates that they must co-operate in the effort to put the government out of business if they are to aid the rehabilitation of the farmer.

"All fertilizer men know that unless the farmer is successful the fertilizer industry cannot be successful," Mr. Talmadge said. "We must keep the government out of business because private company or group of companies can compete with the government."

The governor-designate was loudly cheered when he called for the abolition of the federal farm board.

"It is going to take some self-sacrifice on the part of businessmen to put the farmer back on his feet," Governor-designate Talmadge said. "But once the farmer is rehabilitated the businessman is going to reap his return."

Adams made a brief impromptu address in which he promised to co-operate with the industry after his installation next year and pledged that he would make every effort to reduce the expenditures of his office.

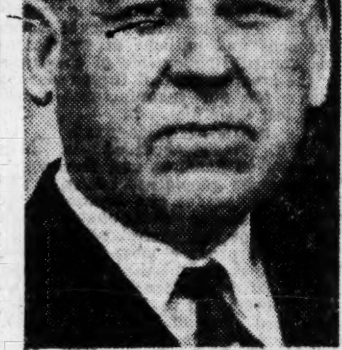

Today's closing session will consist of an "outlook discussion" to be led by fertilizer officials from every state in the south.

FIRESTONE LAUDS HOOVER'S ABILITY

Akron Executive Appeals for President's Return to White House.

AKRON, Ohio, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Asserting "President Hoover has met and overcome conditions more serious than any president since Abraham Lincoln," Harvey S. Firestone, chairman of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, urged his re-election to-night.

"A change in administration always creates uncertainty and delay," he said. "President Hoover has met and overcome conditions more serious than any president since Abraham Lincoln, and is entitled to our confidence and support to carry out his plans for relief and recovery."

"We do not need a change in administration. We need a change in attitude. In place of despair we need courage. In place of fear we need confidence."

Speaking first from the "viewpoint of the farmer" and then "as a manufacturer and businessman" Firestone said "I cannot urge you too strongly to study the character and look into the background and accomplishments of the man whom you choose to head this great enterprise (the government of the United States)."

"President Hoover has always stood for a protective tariff, sufficiently high against foreign goods to protect the standards of living of the American farmer and working man," he said. "I believe the American farmers know that the protective tariff is a retaining wall between them and ruinous foreign competition. This protection must be maintained."

DECREE OF AMNESTY BY FASCISTS LIMITED

ROME, Nov. 1.—(UP)—The booming government decree providing amnesty for thousands of prisoners and political exiles will apply to persons sentenced to terms under five years. It was learned today.

Many anti-fascists expropriated because of their political beliefs will benefit, therefore, because such expropriation is punished with terms below five years.

The amnesty decree's terms will be the broadest yet put forward by the fascist regime.

Place an Ad and Get a Ticket Free to the Paramount Theater

It pays to advertise! Kay Francis finds that out in Ernst Lubitsch's new picture, "Trouble in Paradise," when a classified ad brings her back her costly diamond-studded evening bag and romance too—in the personable guise of Herbert Marshall.

"Trouble in Paradise" opens Saturday at the Paramount theater, with an imposing cast headed by Miriam Hopkins, Miss Francis, Marshall, Charlie Ruggles and Edward Everett Horton. Since the plot goes into "high" with the return of Miss Francis' bag, the idea occurred to Manager E. E. Whitaker, of the Paramount, that a Constitution ad-taker in the lobby of the theater would be quite a convenience for persons in the vicinity who might wish to place a classified ad in the Constitution. So, beginning today, you may place your "Lost and Found" and "Business Opportunities" ads or any other classified ads with the Constitution ad-taker in the Paramount lobby.

She'll have a bit of a surprise for you, too—a rather pleasant one. With every person who places an ad with her she will give a guest ticket for her to the Paramount.

EATON IS ACCUSED OF WRECKING FIRM

Financier Used Continental
Shares To Further
Self, Court Is Told.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Cyrus S. Eaton, founder of Continental Shares, Inc., a Cleveland investment trust incorporated in Maryland, for which a receivership is being asked, was charged today with having "wrecked" it by using the company to further his own financial interest.

This charge was made by Chas. Tresemer, attorney for George L. Gugle, stockholder who brought the suit, as the opening argument in the case was made before Judge H. Arthur Stump in circuit court here.

Tresemer also claimed that the present directors of the company, some of whom, he said, are presidents of banks to which the investment trust owes money, have operated it to the advantage of their own concerns.

George Weems Williams, attorney for the defendant company, in answering Tresemer's allegations, contended that questions of internal management were presented to the court by the prosecutors and urged that no receivership be named.

Many stockholders of the company had re-elected the present management last spring, he said, pointing out that millions of dollars in dividends had been paid out to stockholders.

Shaw and Phillips, Tech Players, Ruled Ineligible by Faculty

Just a Breath of Old Mexico, Bert Niehoff Drops in for a Chat

Bert Niehoff, a breath of old Mexico, blew right in through the door and deposited 189 pounds of well-conditioned beef into the steel-braced chair, reserved for guests, who sometimes are 275-pound wrestlers.

It was with difficulty that Mr. Niehoff was restrained from speaking Spanish.

"Muytamele Espaniolspaghetti Italian," said the manager of the pennant-winning-and-Dixie-series-winning Chattanooga baseball club. "Sprechen Sie Deutsch est frijoles Caramba."

"Well, that's great," said your old correspondent, who has visited in Juarez and Tia Juana and knows a certain amount of casino Spanish. "That's great. It's too bad that it rained most of the time you were down there, but I am glad to know you had such a good time."

This nonplussed Mr. Niehoff and he switched right over to English.

The former manager of the Crackers took a team composed of Chattanooga players, with a few journeymen helpers thrown in, to Mexico City and played a series of games with a couple of Mexican clubs.

In the first game the visitors ran into that old Spanish game known as "Dough, dough, who's got the dough?" The game is played with what is known as funds. The Mexican promoter takes the funds and you try to find him. The Mexicans won this game, playing hide and seek with the Chattanooga promoters. Mr. Lucien Emerson, the secretary of the Chattanooga club, wore out four interpreters, but never found his dough.

That was the first game. The remaining games were played under contract. It rained and rained and the promoters dropped plenty, but the Chattanooga got their expenses.

But Bert Niehoff is thinking of asking Judge K. M. Landis to bar all American ball players from Mexico until his club gets its money from that first game.

WHAT A SURPRISE AWAITS "THE STEAMER."
And while Bertram Niehoff, the old silver cornet player, did not say so, I imagine that when the next baseball season opens he will greet each umpire with a hug and a kiss on the brow.

Yes, sir, Bertram Niehoff, baiter of umpires, has found some worse than the American brand. And he will not protest any more at the decisions handed down by the baseball solons of whatever league he is playing in.

"Everything there is done by the city hall gang," said Niehoff. (Well, they are learning fast in Mexico. The city hall gang runs all our towns.) If you want to play a ball game you go down to the city hall and sign something which looks like a marriage license.

I suggested to Mr. Niehoff that maybe he had got himself engaged to a dozen or more señoritas, but he said not. It was just a license to play a ball game.

"If you aren't there on time they fine you 500 pesos," he said. "And if it is raining they call out a man with a sword and a general's uniform on and he decides if you play. Once we had only 50 people in the stands and it was raining hard. The general, though, wanted to see a ball game and so he got a dry seat and we played it because he said we had to."

"The umpires carry pistols and in one game there, when a Cuban team was playing the Mexican team, we saw an umpire pull his gun. If the Cuban, who had slapped him, had made another move this umpire would have drilled him."

Bert said it was impossible to play much baseball down there in the weather they had, that he was glad to get back, that he hoped someone would get the Atlanta club and make something of it, that he had not signed his Chattanooga contract, largely because he hadn't yet seen Joe Engel, Chattanooga owner, and talked with him about it.

LO, THE POOR EXPERTS.
Of all the so-called experts, who tried to select winners in various sports, the football picker is up against the most difficult problem.

College football players are nothing but impressionable young men upon whom various influences are constantly at work. They affect their play vastly so that one week they may play well and the next week not so well. And it is not at all surprising that football furnishes more upsets than any other sport that is classed with football as being on the level. Conditions change in each game and there is just no telling.

Perhaps it is just as well that Notre Dame lost to Pittsburgh. It proved that Notre Dame's players are just human beings after all and not supermen with superinstruction. As one writer pointed out, after the Pitt game, they looked like just what they were, 11 pretty tired and tattered boys who hadn't been able to get together on a certain game. Pitt was right. Notre Dame wasn't.

JACK CANNON TALKS IT.

Jack Cannon, one of the greatest guards Notre Dame ever had, and now line coach at Georgia Tech, came out of the dressing room yesterday. Bobby Dodd, backfield coach, stopped him. "Just look at poor old Cannon," he said. "He's explained that Notre Dame defeat so much that his jaws are swelling."

Which was just a sample of what the line coach is getting. Cannon, however, is meeting all arguments with offers to wager modest sums that the Irish eleven doesn't lose another game. But the boys are making him suffer just the same. It isn't often one gets to give a Notre Dame man the razz about a football defeat.

COACH ALEX STOPS ONE.

Coach William Alexander took another one on the button yesterday. He lost his reserve fullback and a reserve tackle when the faculty got its collective head together and graded the test papers.

It was really a severe blow in that it struck at the reserves and destroyed the best defensive combinations which the Tech coaches could set up. Coach Alexander took it with his characteristic attitude. It was just another blow from fate. He'll make the best of it. But it weakens Tech's chances.

GEORGIA MAKES READY.

Georgia is off tomorrow on that delightful trip to New York. And somehow I rather expect the Bulldogs to reach the greatest height they have yet reached and win from the Violets. Certainly it will not do for Miss Mary Ann Mehre, who will be a week old next Sunday, to read in the morning papers that her dad's team lost. The young lady must be provided with entertaining and pleasant reading.

FOUR UNBEATEN LEADERS FACING NO EASY TASKS

Remaining Foes on Their Lists Are Tough; All May Taste Defeat.

By Dillon Graham,

Associated Press Sports Writer.

Football experts today are giving serious consideration to the possibility that for the first time in several years no Southern conference eleven may finish the season unbeaten.

A survey of the teams to be played by the four undefeated squads—Tennessee, Virginia Polytechnic, Louisiana State—shows at least one dangerous opponent in the path of each.

Tennessee probably faces the most severe test against a powerful Vanderbilt eleven in Nashville November 12. The Volunteers have thrashed Vanderbilt for the past four seasons and the Commodores will be ripe for revenge.

Vanderbilt has one of the most experienced teams in the conference. The Commodores appear to be a "clutch" team—one that seldom extends itself unnecessarily but always has just enough speed to win.

In Dixie Roberts Vandy has probably the hardest running back in the south and he is supported by a well-balanced backfield. Grimesy at center and Leyendecker at tackle are bullwarks in a heavy forward wall.

Tennessee also engages Kentucky, Mississippi State and Florida. The latter two should be fairly easy but the Wildcats always have held a jinx over the Knoxville club and the scene may be dramatically laid for the Blue Grass eleven to exercise it on Thanksgiving Day.

Virginia Poly apparently has but one formidable foe left but Alabama may carry enough ground and air offense to trip the Gobblers at Tusculosa Saturday. Virginia and Virginia Military seem impotent to stop the Flying Squirrels.

BIG PROBLEM.
Florida, Georgia and South Carolina remain on Auburn's schedule. The Plainsmen may have some trouble with Florida and South Carolina but Georgia offers the big problem. The husky sophomore team from Athens has served its apprenticeship under fire and finally has worked up a smooth, slashing attack. In another fortnight it may be one of the best and capable of giving Auburn an even more formidable opponent than the Georgia team in Columbus, Ga., November 19.

The major battle for Louisiana State comes around Thanksgiving against Tulane. Captain Lawrence "Biff" Jones' Tigers have pointed all season for the annual state engagement with the big Green Wave and seem to have enough strength to give Tulane a serious argument if not to gain a triumph. South Carolina must be met Saturday.

AUBURN TACKLE AGAIN PROMOTED

AUBURN, Ala., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Prim, a senior tackle from Jackson, Miss., came to his place on the first team to Tim Holmes three weeks ago, was back on Auburn's coveted eleven as the Tigers started work for the Hogs' Bulldogs, and it is highly probable that he will open at right tackle against the Birmingham gridders at Crampton bowl in Montgomery Saturday afternoon.

The fiery red-head has been working hard to regain his place on the regular team since he was demoted a few days before the Duke game and now since he has received his promotion, it is going to be hard for Holmes or any of the other aspirants for the right tackle berth to oust him.

Prim's career in the Ole Miss contest last Saturday and was lauded for his work by Coach Wynne largely because he fought every minute of the game as if he were never going to give up. He will close his collegiate career in a blaze of glory if he continues to perform as he did against Mississippi.

The Auburn mentors are quick to overlook many mistakes that their proteges make when they are working hard, but when they loaf for even a second of a game no sympathy is extended the guilty ones by the coaches. Above all things, Coach Wynne, Roger Killey and Sam McAllister will never let a player get away with a second of a game no sympathy is extended the guilty ones by the coaches.

If the Tigers had worked hard to make all of their victories at the University of Mississippi, Auburn probably would have won by a larger score than 14 to 7. Both of Auburn's touchdowns came in the final period after Ole Miss had scored and after Captain Jimmie Hitecock had entered the game and inspired and steeled his band of gridders from Oxford.

The coaches were disappointed in Auburn's showing as a team against Ole Miss. The right tackle, who was a meritorious performer, was demoted to the second team. The coaches were disappointed in Auburn's showing as a team against Ole Miss.

However, Auburn proved her right to rank as one of the nation's great eleven when she pulled the game out of the fire with less than two minutes to play. The pass from Hitecock to Rogers was perfectly executed and, on the whole, turned in the poorest performance of the year.

Jack Cannon, one of the greatest guards Notre Dame ever had, and now line coach at Georgia Tech, came out of the dressing room yesterday. Bobby Dodd, backfield coach, stopped him. "Just look at poor old Cannon," he said. "He's explained that Notre Dame defeat so much that his jaws are swelling."

White Sox Insure Simmons for $100,000

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—(AP)—An idea of what the Chicago White Sox gave Connie Mack for Al Simmons, may be gained from the fact that the new star outfielder has been insured for $100,000.

Simmons took his examination yesterday and stacked up close to 100 per cent.

Buster Crabbe Is in Movies Now

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Buster Crabbe, noted swimmer, was signed today at $200 a week by Paramount movie studios to play in a jungle film picture.

Oreille Mohler, University of Southern California football star, and several of the recent Olympic athletes were tested for the part. "Francis Dee" will be leading lady.

BROWN FACES TOUGH GAMES IN SUCCESSION

Holy Cross, Columbia and Colgate To Obstruct Pathway.

By Bill King,

Associated Press Sports Writer.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 1.—(AP)—With his gaze focused on a distant horizon that takes in the Pasadena Rose Bowl, the undefeated Brown Bear is girdling himself for the dangerous journey he must make before he can gain an invitation to enter those sacred football portals.

Among the traps the Bruin has toiled for those laid by Yale and Harvard.

Cannier hunters, however, are lurking ahead. If the Bear can escape the undefeated lance of the Holy Cross Crusader, then prevail in the struggle with the as yet invincible Columbia Lion, and finally turn back the big Red Raiders from Colgate, he is a worthy brother of the iron Bear of 1926.

Small wonder the eastern football public has been amazed by the current Bear's sudden progress. Just six years ago, when the likable "Tuss" McLaughry first came to Brown, he found a team that possessed every football attribute needed for greatness. He had poor material to work with the next five years but this season he found the players he needed to make his famous triple-back formations successful.

This offense consists of two guards pulling out of the line as the ball is passed and joining all of the backs and one of the ends in a bone-crushing assault against outnumbered forces. This formation, which demands power, speed and exact timing, can be used for a line plunge, a pass or a lateral and also the deceptive reverse plays.

It has but one weak link. Two great tackles can smash it to bits and, as was demonstrated by Brad Hardy in last Saturday's Harvard game, can reduce it. Defensive play, however, was nullified by the weak right side of the Crimson line which bore the brunt of the Bears' attack.

FAVORITE WINS PIMLICO RACE

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Con Amore, out of the money only three times in 16 previous starts this season, liked the muddy racing strip at Pimlico, Maryland, today, winning the mile and 70-yard feature, known as the Country Club purse.

In accounting for her third victory of the year, the five-year-old mare from J. W. Mackay's stable, carried a head in front of Mrs. F. A. Carreard's Kinsmen, the only other mare in the field of seven. A half length in the third place trail behind the stable's Cabela with Glastonbury, the favorite, fourth.

Six six-furlong Martis kept stride with the daughter of High Cloud but for her post-season rally into Mexico with part of his ball club, save a very vivid memory of the Mexican manners and a bad cold he contracted while across the border.

Bert motored to Atlanta yesterday from Marietta, Ga., where he is visiting friends, to say howdy to all the folks and spin a few spicy yarns about the trip.

The successful pilot of Chattanooga's first pennant winner since the Spanish-American War said that he had not had a chance to talk terms or contract with his chief, Joe Engle, for next year, and that, furthermore, he hadn't seen hide nor hair of Joe Engle since the Dixie series ended.

At the last minute some of Bert's ball players renege on the Mexican tour and he was so busy putting out wires and telephone messages for new recruits that he didn't have time to go into the matter with Joe.

At Chattanooga and Joe and I will talk things over sometime before the baseball meeting in December," Bert declared. He said that he didn't have any other major league offers thus far but added that inasmuch as his name had been used in connection with the vacancy at Cincinnati, he knew he would be hot in the ring in order to keep up with the times. This facetiously, of course.

Some of the stories Bert told about dear old Mexico were so comic, he finally got together enough players for the trip, including Johnny Cummings, Cracker outfielder, whom he picked up at Memphis.

It seems that down in Mexico everything is arranged through the government or one of the generals, including the time of the game, the split of the gate and the personnel of the team.

"As a matter of fact, one can't very well set without consulting one of the generals—and there seems to be one always convenient," Bert stated. The first jam the Lookouts got into was with the generalissimo over the playing of the first game. Bert and his boys have into Mexico City a little late. They were supposed to play the Fort Worth (Texas) team in the morning and the Aztecs in the afternoon.

When finally the Lookouts arrived at the park they found the Mexican crowd in a very sour humor. It seems they had paid their pesos to see the game start at a specific time, the same being specified by the government.

Panthers, Quakers Offer Real Treat

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Two of the greatest football teams ever turned out by the state of Pennsylvania will crash head-on at Philadelphia Saturday, when the unbeaten Pittsburgh Panthers and the University of Pennsylvania Quakers battle at Franklin field.

It is only natural that Pitt's 1932 eleven should be the favorite to win this renewal of hostilities with Penn after a lapse of seven years. Coach Jack Sutherland's team was strong and fast enough to bowl over the highly-touted Notre Dame Ramblers in the biggest upset of the season.

The Panthers will be at full strength against Pennsylvania. Except for minor bruises the Pitt squad achieved its 12-0 victory over the South Bend aggregation without injuries. The entire squad swung into intensive preparation today for the game.

Bert Niehoff Back With Mexican Yarns

Skipper of Lookouts Had Trying Times With Mexicans—And Fun, Too.

By Jimmy Jones.

Bert Niehoff, skipper of the championship Chattanooga Lookouts (both Southern and Texas, sub), is back in Georgia, none the worse for his post-season rally into Mexico with part of his ball club, save a very vivid memory of the Mexican manners and a bad cold he contracted while across the border.

Bert motored to Atlanta yesterday from Marietta, Ga., where he is visiting friends, to say howdy to all the folks and spin a few spicy yarns about the trip.

GEORGIA LOOKS NOT SO GOOD IN SCRIMMAGE

Red Devils Anything But 'Shrinking Violets' With N. Y. U. Plays.

By Al Smith.

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 1.—Georgia's Bulldogs, who will play their only intercollegiate game this year against N. Y. U. in New York Saturday, had a release today after their fine showing against the Florida Gators last Saturday.

Harry Mehre, who was proud of his team's play against the Gators, worked the Bulldogs late and hard this afternoon. He took advantage of the first of the two days of intensive training which his football team will get before climbing aboard their special train Thursday at noon and departing for New York to carry the colors of the south into battle on a northern gridiron.

Defensive line Bulldogs got their first dose of violet plays in a long scrimmage in which the entire varsity squad took part. The Red Devils, who only got the New York boys a half hour before they presented them to the varsity, showed a great deal of proficiency at gaining against the variety.

Once Hines, Red halfback, took the ball on an off-tackle smash and caught the variety line and backfield flat-footed. Even at that, however, they were able to stop the variety line from running. On a couple of other occasions Mr. Hines and Mr. Joe Cronch, back for a brief visit with his former brothers on the Red squad, got away from the variety and made the Bulldogs look a little sad.

The defensive story was not entirely a sad one. The Bulldogs held the variety line at times and once in a while they will have better luck, at least in so far as stopping the elusive Mr. Hines and the hard-driving Mr. Cronch.

Offensively, the boys did fairly well against the freshmen, many of whom are not such husky young men. It would take a major league team to stop the Bulldogs from treating the freshmen of the N. Y. U. line the same way they treat the freshmen of the Georgia line. However, the freshmen have a number of young men who are very hard to move out of the way. The Bulldogs did not have a field day against the Georgia's freshmen team, for if they had Johnny would have his freshmen down on the field working out right now.

PRACTICE TACKLING.
Mr. Harry Mehre was not at all cheered by the way his young men were tackling Saturday, so this afternoon he had the boys practicing tackling during the early stages of the work-out. The tackling problem is one of the many Harry Mehre has been facing with his young football squad.

In the past years the Bulldogs have gone on developing power at this stage of the game, but the youngsters need a little more on the fundamentals.

One bright ray of sunshine for Coach Mehre lies in the fact that his boys are all in trim. The usual number of bruises are distributed about the squad, but otherwise Trainer Clarence Jones is having things easy. Tuesday afternoon's practice will climax the Bulldogs' heavy training for New York University.

Chasley Treadaway, star freshman quarterback, suffered an arm injury in today's scrimmage with the variety that will keep him out for several days.

Neyland Reports At Fordham Denied

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Jack Coffey, graduate manager of athletics at Fordham University, today denied reports that he had been selected to coach the University of Tennessee football team, with an offer to come to Fordham.

"We have no statement to make at present on the coaching situation," Coffey said, "but I can assure you we have not approached Neyland or anyone else with an offer to come to Fordham."

Coffey said that the health of Major Frank Cavanaugh was considerably improved and the iron major's health has been the only reason advanced for a possible change in coaches. Cavanaugh, suffering from wounds received in the World War, has been handicapped this fall by coaching his team, but the decision as to whether he will return next year is believed to rest solely with himself.

V.P.I. Asked To Play Game for Charity
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The Virginia Polytechnic Institute football team will be asked to play here December 3 or December 10 in a post-season contest, with the proceeds going to charity.

D. G. Robson, president of the V. P. I. Alumni Association, a Memphis, announced he would telegraph college officials tonight in an effort to interest them in such a game.

If a favorable reply is received, an effort will be made to secure the sanction of the Southern conference. The University of Mississippi will be among the teams considered to oppose the Gobblers if the plans go through.

The St. Vincent De Paul Society, a charity organization, is co-operating with Robson in the plans.

L.S.U., Oregon Game Postponed a Week

BATON ROUGE, La., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The post-season intercollegiate football game scheduled between Louisiana State University and the University of Oregon here December 10, has been postponed to December 17, was announced today by Athletic Director T. O. Heard, of L. S. U.

The December 10 date conflicted with the annual Southern conference meeting, it was explained.

HARD PRACTICE BEGUN BY SQUAD FOR WAVE GAME

Loss of Two Players Will Be Felt; Perkerson Promoted.

By Jimmy Jones.

Simultaneously with the start of the first hard practice for the Tulane game Saturday, there came the announcement yesterday that the Georgia Tech football team has lost two of its most promising sophomore players for the remainder of the season due to scholastic deficiencies.

The two players declared ineligible by the faculty were Jack Phillips, fullback, of Waynesville, N. C., and Carl Shaw, tackle, of Memphis, Tenn. Both players were immediately ordered to the Grey Devil squad, pending their return to eligibility.

The loss of Phillips probably will be felt most by the Tech squad. He was being groomed for considerable fullback duty late in the campaign. Not long ago Harry Milligan, another experienced fullback, was declared ineligible by the conference committee on the five-year ruling. The subsequent loss of Phillips leaves Coach Alexander with only Ben Chory and Wilbur Peterson for the fullback position.

Shaw, who weighed 180 pounds, has been used both at tackle and center this year. He was considered the team's logical third-string center, but Phillips originally was tried at end a while this year but returned to his old post when Milligan was injured.

Both Phillips and Shaw were valuable players on last year's freshman team. While Coach Alexander had not counted on them heavily early in the season, it was obvious that they would be of some help in the late season games. Phillips got in the North Carolina game a while at fullback and looked good.

Phillips, who weighs around 185, was a particularly fine defensive back and also an able passer. There is a chance of the two players becoming eligible for the game with California in December but it is not believed they will be ready for Tech's remaining conference games.

PERKERSON PROMOTED.
Coinciding with the transfer of Phillips and Shaw to the Grey Devils, Jerry Perkerson, Atlanta player, promising fullback, was moved up to the varsity. Perkerson has been looking good all season, both as a blocker and as a runner. Phillips and Shaw's squad. He weighs around 170.

Coach Alexander regretted the loss of these men. He will not miss them immediately but in the event of an injury to one of the fullbacks or centers, they would have come in most handy. Some solace was seen in the fact that Perkerson, Phillips and Shaw were regulars, although they were very valuable replacements.

The varsity started preparing for Tulane yesterday with the freshmen and Grey Devils being given Tulane plays. The freshmen do not have to play a game this week and can give the varsity plenty of stiff competition. Phillips and Shaw also will add scrimmage strength to the Grey Devil squad.

The play of Jerry Goldsmith, injured end just returned to duty, and that of Wilbur Peterson at fullback featured the varsity during the long scrimmage. The former looked good both offensively and defensively against the Greenie plays.

Jones, Hudson Forces Meet

Bobby Jones and Scott Hudson Sr. will lead their respective golf teams over the East Lake Club courses at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon in "losers" change dinner tournament.

The pairings and starting times of the original match will be used as near as possible in the dinner tournament. The pairings with substitutions where necessary.

Any other member of the club who desires to participate in today's match is urged to make reservations with George Bell, club manager, for a dinner and communicate with George Sargent, regarding the golf match.

Additional pairings will be made at noon today and anyone who decides to play should be present at the club before 1 o'clock and be assigned to one of the teams.

GALLANT SIR TO MEET GUSTO THIS SATURDAY

Purse of $40,000 Awaits
Winner; Four Others
To Race.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 1.—Gusto and Gallant Sir came to town today to battle for the Latonia championship stake of an estimated $40,000.

There, and possibly six others, will take the field Saturday, with plenty to make the race notable in Latonia's history.

It will be, for one thing, the next to the last running of the Latonia championship. The race, the stewards have announced, will be dropped after next year's running.

It will be, too, Gusto's last chance to become leading 3-year-old of 1932 and retain his standing as the top money winner of the year.

Gusto, pride of M. L. Schwartz's stable, already has $144,000 to his credit this year. The championship, $25,000 added over a mile and three-quarters, is expected to yield at least $35,000 to the winner.

Gusto has a victory in the American Derby to his credit, and N. W. Church's Gallant Sir has the Maryland handi-

Against them will be running, it seemed today, a field composed of C. V. Whitney's Mad Trump, W. R. Coe's Chevalier, J. Fred Adams' Bobolink, H. P. Headley's Big Beau, the Dixiana Stables' Cee Tee and R. H. Eastman's Caphos.

Radcliffe, Anderson
Meet at East Point

A double-header attraction will feature the Thursday night wrestling card at the East Point auditorium to be sponsored by the East Point American Legion.

Ted Radcliffe, who has not lost a match in more than a year, will meet Bob Anderson and George Erwin meets Whittie Patterson in the twin bill.

A 5-minute preliminary will open the show at 8 o'clock.

Permanent Players
Give Matinee Today

There will be a bargain-price matinee performance of "The Vinegar Tree," at the Erlanger theater this afternoon. The curtain will rise at 2:45.

This production, a brilliant comedy starring Doris Parker, who gives an inspired performance as Lora, the middle-aged wife, is one of the cleverest things seen on an Atlanta stage.

It was acclaimed with enthusiasm by Monday and Tuesday night audiences and immediately lifted the Permanent Players into place as the most complete stock company ever seen in Atlanta.

Seats will go on sale tomorrow for next week's production of "Unexpected Father." This is the hilarious farce which did capacity business for five months in New York and which was there known as the "play with 1,004 laughs." It deals with the efforts of a wild Texan to interfere, with gun if necessary, between his runaway daughter and a typical Broadway playboy. There is one scene in a speakeasy that for broad humor surpasses almost everything the stage has given us in years.

Football Notes on Nation's Fronts

N. Y. U.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(UP)—New York University's Violets went through a stiff drill today on rain-soaked Ohio field. Most of the work-out was devoted to defense against formations expected to be used by Georgia Saturday. Virtually the entire squad swung into this dummy scrimmage.

ARMY.
WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Army's football squad took only a light workout today after rain turned the playing gridiron into a quagmire. The scrimmage machines were used by various backfield combinations. It appears that the cadets will have severely any redoubtable Saturday's game with Harvard. The squad leaves Thursday morning for Cambridge.

PRINCETON.
PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Stan Purnell, regular right halfback, will not be in Princeton's lineup when the Tigers face Lehigh Saturday. Purnell suffered a painful side injury against Michigan and will be out until the Yale game, Coach Fritz Crisler announced. Steve McPartland, a junior, probably will take his place.

NAVY.
ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Fred Borries, sophomore halfback from Louisville, Ky., was shifted today from the reserves to that position in the Navy's lineup for the injured Wakeup. Otherwise, the lineup is expected to be intact against Columbia Saturday. The team scrimmaged for an hour, concentrating on punting and defensive work.

CHICAGO.
CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—(UP)—The Chicago freshmen used Purdue formations so effectively against the varsity today that Coach A. A. Staggs halted scrimmage and gave the first-stringers a long drill on fundamentals.

NORTHWESTERN.
EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Northwestern's second team outshone the regulars in a scrimmage against the freshmen, and as a result, two members of the former eleven probably will see a lot of action against Ohio State Saturday. Chester Sutton will share the fullback job with Ollie Olson, and Roy Augustus may spell Al Kawa at quarter.

NOTRE DAME.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Coach Hank Anderson called his second team out two hours early and even after two and one-half hours of scrimmage, was dissatisfied with what he saw. The freshmen used the same line as the varsity, Bobby Schuler, Captain Paul Host, demoted to the second team Monday, and Nick Lukats, who went with him, looked good but the lineup failed to function properly.

ILLINOIS.
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 1.—(UP)—The Illinois squad went through a long dummy scrimmage on offense and defense, and continued to show improvement. Coach Bob Zuppke indicated it is just about set on the backfield composed of Captain Gil Berry, Frank Prosch and Pete Sullivan, with Herman Walser at fullback.

WISCONSIN.
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Hal Smith, fullback, was placed at quarterback as an experiment by Coach "Doc" Spars as Wisconsin worked on its offense. Bobby Schuler, halfback, was used as fullback. The work of Dave Tobias against Ohio State Saturday was excellent in a place at tackle for the Illinois game Saturday.

IOWA.
IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 1.—(UP)—Preparation for Saturday's game today.

Nebraska found Coach Ossie Solem making wholesale shifts on the University of Iowa's football team. The first string used had the support of only four regulars who started in the George Washington game last week.

MINNESOTA.
MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—(UP)—Captain Walt Hass came back to the Gophers' first string to meet his first appearance in the last 11 days. Hass' condition was improved so much that he may be ready for Mississippi Saturday. The Gophers' hopes were made still stronger for a powerful finish in the Big Ten race by his return.

COLGATE.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Coach Andy Kerr's greatest worry was the overconfidence shared by Colgate's football players and students alike. Kerr is taking no chances on the Red Raiders having their next record spoiled by the loss of Colgate Saturday through a Colgate let-down.

FORDHAM.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(UP)—Fordham coaches are whipping the sluggish Rams into fighting fervor for Saturday's clash with the power Syracuse. Fordham's team from California. Several changes have been made in the first-string lineup, after two successive beatings by Michigan State and Boston College.

HARVARD.
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 1.—(UP)—Injuries have given Coach Eddie Cahan a serious problem in the bolstering of his mid-line positions. Roger Halliwell, first-string center, probably will be out of the Army game, but Cahan expects to have him back to Harvard, only Warren Casey remains. Guard positions also have been weakened. To prevent further damage to the team, Cahan decided but once this week, it was decided to day.

CLARK QUARTER PICKED FOR GAME

Carl Ray, playing his first year of college football, will be the regular quarterback on the Clark University team against the University of Tennessee aggregation Friday night at Ponce de Leon park. It is the Atlanta team's second game before local fans this season.

The executive committee of the Southern conference dealt with the Clark University team, which will arrive Thursday afternoon for the game. Coach Hawkins, of the Tennessee, will be seeking revenge for the defeat of last season.

Clark's new coach, who will be in charge through their games at a fast clip. They stressed passing in Tuesday's workout and considerable time was spent on the offensive end of the field. After the workout, Chief Aiken, head coach, stated that the team would be revamped for this game and the next game will be the same.

The line will remain about the same with the exception of the pivot position. Coach Smith, who coaches the Clark team, expects to see their performance in Tuesday's workout and expected his young stalwarts to be in great form Friday.

Morris Brown College Meets 24th Infantry

Coach Nick, mentor of Morris Brown College, after adding his fifth victory in the series with the 24th Infantry, will meet the team Saturday. Morris Brown College last Saturday, started earnest preparation for the Army "rule" here Saturday, after a week of training at Camp Gordon.

This game is a non-conference affair and it is expected that the regulars will be in the lineup. The game will be held at Ponce de Leon park, where the two undefeated conference rivals will lock horns.

Atlantan Is High In Meet at Berry

Burnstine Team Leads Sims In Vanderbilt Cup Match

BY WILLIAM R. SPEAR.
NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—David Burnstine and his bridge team led P. Hal Sims' foursome by 225 points at the end of the first half of the final in the Vanderbilt cup tournament tonight.

The Sims quartet rolled up the large margin of 1,535 points on 15 boards in the afternoon session. On 15 more boards tonight, however, Burnstine's side scored a plus of 1,760 points to force ahead.

Thirty more boards will be played in one session tomorrow evening to decide possession of the big silver trophy which betokens team-of-four supremacy.

With just two teams left out of a record field of 24 which started last Wednesday, the tournament was moved from the grand ballroom to a private suite at the Ritz-Carlton hotel.

Each match was played in a separate room and the doors were locked against kibitzers. Only Lieutenant Alfred Gruenther, of West Point, the referee, saw the play.

The largest swing today, 730 points, came on the following hand:

North
S-A 3 2
H-Q 8
D-K 9 3
C-J 10 2

West
S-K 7 5 4
H-A 5
D-Q 10 8
C-S 7

East
S-Blank
H-J 9 7 2
D-7 6 2
C-A-K 5 4 3

South
S-Q 10 8 3
H-K 10 6 4 3
D-5 4
C-6

East and west were vulnerable. North and south not vulnerable and east dealt.

With Sims and Willard S. Karn

north and south and Charles Lochridge and Richard Frey east and west and the bidding went:

Three passes, north one spade, east two clubs, south two spades, two passes, east three clubs, south three spades and west double. The king of clubs was led and Sims made his contract.

At the other table Burnstine and David Schenken went on to bid four spades, and Waldemar Von Zedwitz and Harold S. Vanderbilt, east and west, put them down two doubled.

This hand furnished an interesting bid by Sims:

North
S-E 3 5 3
H-A 9 7 6 5
D-A 4
C-Blank

West
S-5 4
H-8
D-J 10 9 3 2
C-Q 10 9 7 2

East
S-Q 10 7 2
H-J 10 2
D-8 7
C-A 4 3

South
S-A 4
H-K 4 3
D-K 8 6 5
C-K J 8 6 5

North and south were vulnerable. East and west not vulnerable and Sims at north dealt.

North bid a heart, east three spades, south four clubs and west four diamonds. Over that Sims then bid five diamonds to leave to Karn the choice of the suit as between clubs and hearts. After east's pass south bid six hearts.

The little slam was made with the loss of only a spade trick after a queen of spades opening lead.

The finals are being played under the new rules in effect today but with grand slams barred.

Vanderbilt Simplifies New Rules of Contract

The new laws and scoring system in contract bridge, just announced as the first international code in the history of the game, are so puzzling to many players that Harold S. Vanderbilt has written the following article to clarify them. Mr. Vanderbilt, known as the "Father of Contract," wrote the 1927 bridge laws and was largely instrumental in framing the present code. He is a member of the Whist Club's committee on laws.

BY HAROLD S. VANDERBILT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—While the new international contract bridge laws speak for themselves, I propose in the following article, written in reply to a number of requests, to give a few supplementary pointers in the hope that they may help players to understand the new laws and simplify scoring calculations.

The New Revoke Law.
The best way to understand the new revoke law is to dismiss from the mind all previous revoke terminology. Forget that the words "revoke" and "penalty revoke" ever existed—they are not used in the international code—and be prepared to accept a totally different construction of the word "revoke."

A "revoke" is now not only a failure to follow suit when able to do so, but also a failure to lead or play as required by an opponent in imposing a penalty.

Study the definition clause of the new revoke law. It reads as follows: "A player 'revokes' if, when able to play or lead as required by or under these laws, he fails to do so. A revoke may only be 'corrected' by paid. If the card wrongly played or led, in which case the relatively mild 'penalty' if revoke corrected is paid. If the card wrongly played or led is not withdrawn before the revoking side leads or plays as provided in section (3) of this law, the revoke, except in the case of a trick, 'becomes established' by said lead or play. In this case the relatively severe 'penalty' for an established revoke is paid, provided the 'claim for an established revoke' has been properly made."

The changes in revoke terminology were made because an international code cannot be entirely as one country will it. We are not dictators but parties to an agreement. Besides, the new "revoke" definition (it really represents a return to the original definition of years ago) results in a far simpler draft of the revoke law.

Note that a revoke to the twelfth trick never becomes established. This means that a revoke to the twelfth trick is no longer subject to a twelfth penalty. Such a revoke is a harmless revoke and is usually caused by a player with one card in each hand inadvertently playing the wrong one and immediately leading the other one to the thirteenth trick. A revoke to the twelfth trick must be corrected and is subject to the penalty for corrected revoke. Unlike revokes in other tricks, the revoking side should call attention to its own revoke in the twelfth trick, if it notices it.

Reviewing the Calling.
Note that a player can ask that the calling be reviewed only when it is his turn to bid; or after the auction is closed and before the initial lead.

Looking at Quitted Trick.
A player may no longer look at a quitted trick in the ordinary course of play. This will result in speeding up the game. Players will observe more attentively the cards when played to a trick. The old law permitting a player to look at a quitted trick has resulted in the forming of the bad and careless habit of not watching the cards when played to a trick.

How to Figure the Total Trick Penalty.
The increase of 50 points for under-trick, which controls the penalties (now identical) for double and under-trick, may cause an occasional scorer some difficulty in computing the total or cumulative penalty incurred when he has had a day or two's experience with the new system, and unless he observes the following simple rule:

Previously, in the case of a doubled penalty, a scorer had to remember and add two sets of figures—1, 1, 2, 2, 4 if not vulnerable, and 2, 4, 4, 4 if vulnerable. In each case, in computing the cumulative penalty, he added up the number of figures corresponding to the number of under-tricks lost.

But now a scorer has to remember but one set of figures and they are in sequence, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, etc. Assume a side incurs a doubled penalty of any specified number of tricks. Add together the number of figures corresponding to the number of under-tricks lost. If the side is vulnerable, the sum represents the amount of the penalty. If it is not vulnerable, divide the sum by 2.

Example: A side has been set four tricks doubled. Add 2, 3, 4 and 5 together. The sum equals 14. The penalty the side has incurred, if it is vulnerable, is 1,400 points, and if it is not vulnerable, 700 points. The latter figure also represents the vulnerable undoubled penalty for a loss of four under-tricks.

New Bridge Rules Intensify Rivalry in Contract Systems

(This is the first of three articles on the differences between the contract bidding methods of P. Hal Sims and Ely Culbertson. The first article describes the chief differences in the systems. In ensuing articles the chief exponent of each method will compare the two systems.)

BY TOM O'NEIL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Once again a great rivalry of systems exists in contract bridge and it will be intensified by changes in rules which went into effect today.

Peace between the Culbertson and "official" systems, which had a prolonged test last winter, has been followed by marked success in tournament play of disciples of P. Hal Sims. Followers of Ely Culbertson also have had notable victories.

12 NEVADA BANKS DECLARE HOLIDAY

Governor Balzar Requests $2,000,000 R. F. C. Loan To Aid Institutions

RENO, Nev., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Reorganization of the 12 banking corporations controlled by the George Wingfield interests was under way today as banks throughout Nevada took advantage of a 12-day holiday proclaimed by executive order.

In Washington, after a flight there by airplane, Governor Fred Balzar sought a loan of $2,000,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, while officials here worked to protect the interests of depositors.

The legal cessation of business was ordered last night by Acting Governor Morley Griawold.

The First National bank of Reno, was the only local institution not to observe the holiday.

Strengthened by the arrival from San Francisco of a $1,500,000 money shipment, the First National, a non-Wingfield institution, was "well prepared," its directors announced, "to meet any emergency."

All the 12 Wingfield banks, located in nine cities and carrying deposits of approximately $15,000,000, were closed today, as were several of the 14 other banks in the state.

Inability of live stock men, hard hit by the depression and during the last three years, to meet their obligations was in large part responsible for the decision to declare the holiday.

Conditions in the live stock industry are such, Governor Balzar told President Hoover in Washington today, that "it may be necessary to carry some of our citizens over until next spring."

The governor, who prepared to return to Nevada tonight, said he informed the president that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation had directed an investigation of his request for a loan of $2,000,000.

Dads To Be Guests of Emory Sons At Fifth Annual 'Dad's Day' Today

Fathers of Emory University students will stroll with their sons over campus, through halls and into dormitories today when they gather to observe the fifth annual "Dad's Day."

Parents of the students from Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, North Carolina and South Carolina will be present.

A definite step toward co-ordination of common interests of students, fathers and faculty members, the association will be beneficial to all concerned, university officials said.

The program includes registration at 10 o'clock this morning, luncheon at 12 o'clock, and a football game at 2 o'clock. Following the reception, the dads will go to the athletic field to see the freshman-sophomore football game.

Climaxing the day a banquet will be held in the ballroom of the Henry Grady hotel at 6:30 o'clock tonight with Henry Bowden, president of the student body, acting as master of ceremony. Robert Strickland Jr., Emory alumnus and prominent Atlanta banker, will make the principal speech. During the dinner a novelty orchestra, trio and vaudeville will be presented, to be followed by distribution of 20 prizes contributed by local business concerns.

Chairmen of various events of the day said the fathers will be admitted free of charge to the banquet, while students will pay $1 each. All were urged to attend whether or not their dads were present.

Three tiny sparks of life in the maternity ward of Grady hospital held the attention of doctors Tuesday afternoon. Two of them were new-born babies, each weighing about two and a half pounds. The third was a 5-week-old infant who, from time to time, turns a ghastly blue.

When night fell one of the two and one-half pound babies died. The other seemed to be gaining strength. Specialists were attending the "Blue Baby." The child to die was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Riley, of 835 Wheeler street. Born seven days previously, all efforts to nurture it to strength failed. The other child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Winter, of 502 Lynch avenue, N. W., was born six days ago. Doctors were hopeful of its recovery.

A specialist Tuesday night attributed the death of the baby to a natural complexion.

TWO AUTOS CRASH, NEW PATRON WON FOR ATLANTA DAIRY

A brand new way of getting customers for a milk route was introduced Tuesday night when the automobiles of C. L. Brownlee, of R. F. D. No. 3, and Douglas R. Kersh, of 1215 Virginia avenue, N. E., collided at Highland and Bellevue avenues, according to police reports. Small damage was done, but much good came of it, both drivers said.

Following the accident Mr. Brownlee, who is a salesman for a dairy, and Mr. Kersh engaged in a heated argument as to the extent of damages and the responsibility therefor. Police were called. Mr. Brownlee threatened to sue Mr. Kersh and Mr. Kersh threatened to make a case against Mr. Brownlee. The men and police were in a quandary. Finally it was settled amicably. Mr. Kersh will start taking milk this morning from Mr. Brownlee's dairy, and Mr. Brownlee will not sue Mr. Kersh. The argument lasted well over an hour. Police estimated the damage to both cars at $2.

Noted the peculiarity of the "Blue Baby" to possible brain injuries caused at the time of birth. Previous theories of hospital interns dealing with possible thymus gland growth were characterized as inaccurate by the specialist, who said there is a good chance the baby will recover and assume a natural complexion.

FOUR MEN ARE JAILED IN FLOGGING PROBE

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Four of nine men indicted yesterday in connection with the recent flogging of 20 persons here, today were placed in jail in default of $1,000 bond each.

Those who went to jail were E. M. Rabb, Hugh Laseter, L. C. Bowers and W. A. Jackson.

Meanwhile, the grand jury continued its investigation of the lawless outbreak.

NINA WILCOX PUTNAM DIVORCESUIT ANSWERED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Probability of a contest in the divorce suit filed October 25 by Nina Wilcox Putnam, writer, was indicated today when Arthur James Ogle, importer, filed an answer denying all allegations in the complaint.

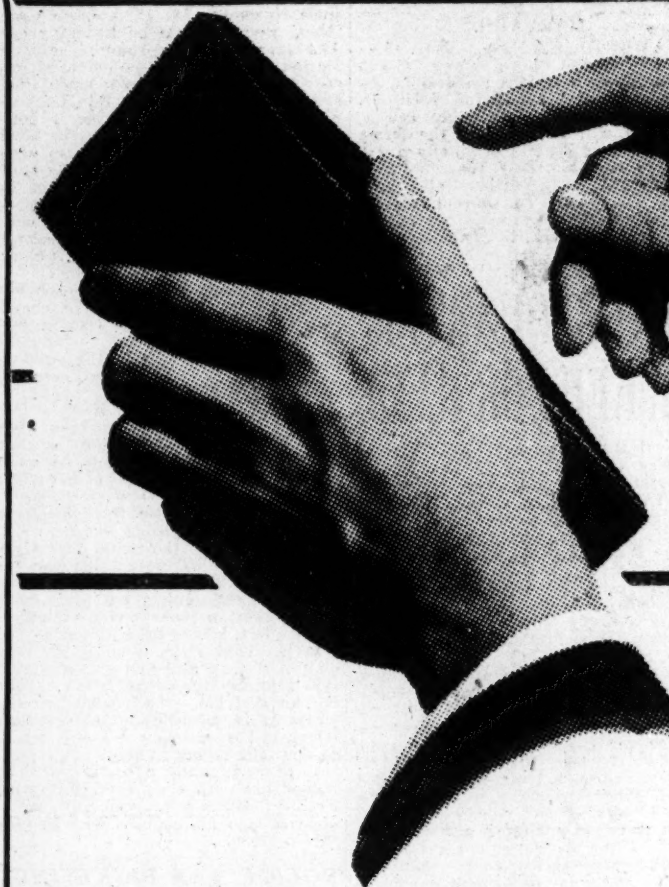

The suit accused Ogle of cruelty, charging he quarreled with her over trivial matters and belittled her before friends.

How Doctors Treat Colds and Coughs

Medical writers agree that the important point in the treatment of a cold, or cough due to a cold, is to relieve the congestion in the nose and throat, thereby preventing serious complications which may follow a neglected cold. To stop this congestion Calomel was the accepted and standard remedy, until Calomel, the improved calomel compound tablet was introduced.

Now that science has robbed calomel of its nausea and danger, making it pleasant to take and perfectly safe for general use, over forty million Calomels are consumed in the U. S. yearly with only the most pleasant and satisfactory results. In millions of homes Calomels have proved their superiority in the prompt relief of colds and coughs due to colds. One or two Calomels at bedtime with a glass of sweet milk or water, the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning the congestion has subsided, your cold or cough is relieved, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you wish—no danger.

Get a family package of Calomels, containing full directions, only thirty-five cents. Trial size, ten cents. At any drug store.—(adv.)

Morning Musicales Artists Announced

The second morning musicale of the season of the Atlanta Music Club, Mrs. Howard Claude Smith Jr., president, to be presented at the Atlanta Woman's Club auditorium this morning at 10:45 o'clock, will hold attraction for local music lovers. Miss Claire Harper, violinist, recently came to Atlanta, a graduate of the Juillard Graduate School of Music in New York, and T. Stanley Perry, tenor, recently addition to local art circles, coming from Chicago and Detroit, will give a joint recital of violin and vocal solos, with Mrs. Charles Chalmers playing the accompaniments. Admission for non-members is 50 cents.

Miss Harper held a fellowship at Juillard under Paul Kochanski for three years, and was offered it a fourth season. She has concertized extensively, appearing as assisting artist with Gustav DeLoos, Metropolitan Opera star, and it was after appearing as guest artist at the State Music Teachers' Institute at the University of Georgia last summer that she became interested in coming to Georgia and Atlanta to teach.

Mr. Perry has to his musical credit not only many appearances in concert, oratorio and opera, but the directorship of the musical programs of WGHF, large Detroit broadcasting station, and the position of tenor soloist in several of Detroit's largest churches. He has appeared as soloist with the Chicago, Detroit and Russian symphonies.

Mrs. Thad Morrison is chairman of the morning musicales and highlights of the well-balanced program will be the Miss Harper's rendition of "Praeludium and Allegro," Pugnani-Kreisler, and "Ruralia Hungarica," Dohnanyi, and Mr. Perry's singing of "Walters' Prelied," from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger," and "The Lampbrusher," and "In the Luxembourg Gardens," by Kathleen Lockhart.

For Miss Bryan.
Miss Belle Bryan, of Richmond, Va., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Colquitt Carter Jr., at their home on Wesley avenue, will be central figure at the party at which Misses Florence and Mary Bryan will entertain Saturday, November 12, at the dinner-dance at the Piedmont Driving Club.

For O. E. S. Matron.

Mrs. O. J. Eason was hostess at a luncheon Tuesday at her home on Meade road, honoring Mrs. Mortie Stanley, matron of the Decatur chapter, O. E. S.

On the luncheon table the color scheme of lavender and yellow was effectively carried out in pompon chrysanthemums and ageratum. Covers were placed for Mrs. Mortie Stanley, Mrs. Charles E. Lawrence, Mrs. E. M. Young, Mrs. O. Tate, Miss Moleta Goldsmith and Mrs. Eason.

Junior Hadassah To Present Follies In February

An interesting program of business and entertainment was presented at the meeting of the Atlanta unit of Junior Hadassah held last Sunday in the Henry Grady hotel. Miss Gladys Shuman, president, was in the chair during the business session, while Miss Perle Bokritsky, first vice president, presided over the entertainment. It was decided to sponsor a follies during February with a cast of 100 members of Junior Hadassah. Miss Perle Bokritsky, chairman of the ways and means committee, will be general chairman of this fund raising project, the exact date to be announced later.

Miss Bessie Gaffen, cultural chairman, announced the first meeting of the fireside group to be held Sunday evening, November 6, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Misses Lillian and Bee Reisman. An interesting cultural and social program has been arranged for that evening and an invitation is extended to all Junior Hadassah members. Miss Gaffen stated that the first meeting of the dramatic group will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, November 10, in the Jewish Educational Alliance, and all interested members are requested to be present.

Miss Rose Cherkas was appointed chairman of a class to study parliamentary law under the instruction of Miss Rebecca Shuman, the first meeting to be held Monday evening, November 7, at 7:30 o'clock in the Henry Grady hotel. Miss Shuman is well known in Atlanta club circles, having served as a president of the Atlanta Business and Professional Women's Club, and is now president of the Georgia Federation of the Business and Professional Women's organization. Much interest has been shown in this class and a majority of members have signified intentions of attending the lessons to be given by Miss Shuman.

Under the leadership of Miss Estelle Taffel, Junior Hadassah assisted Marvin McNaughton in the sale of season tickets for the all-star concert series which began October 21. Miss Lillian Reisman was co-chairman with Miss Taffel, who presented a report of this fund-raising project, the proceeds derived therefrom to be created on the quotas assigned to the Atlanta unit for the current year.

An intensive membership drive has been started under the leadership of Miss Polly Gershon, membership chairman, and Miss Jennie Shamos, co-chairman of membership. The new members who have recently joined the Atlanta Unit of Junior Hadassah, and welcome was extended to the following: Miss Helen Balser, Ida Turetsky, Jennie Klein, Molly Klein, Annie Cohen, Freida Miller, Jennie Shamos, Annette Davis, Dorothy Davis, Dora Klotz, Annette Geffen, Naomi Cantor, Edith Kessler, Bertha Fisher, Rosalie Hirsch, Bertha Goldberg, Lottie Goncher, Gertrude Goler and Anne Tokman.

The members paused during the meeting to pay silent devotion to the memory of the late Mrs. Sara Gordon Hirsch. An interesting feature was the talk by Mrs. DeLoos Hill, who recently returned from a Mediterranean cruise. Mrs. Hill placed particular emphasis on her visit to Palestine and her talk was accompanied by stereoscopic views of some of the many points of interest which she visited. During the program, members of Joe Carter's novelty string band played several selections.

A mock radio broadcast was presented by Miss Bessie Lutsky, who gave a resume of the Palestine project sponsored by Junior Hadassah, which includes the redemption of the land in Palestine through the Jewish national fund; a model children's village at Meier Shifveth; the Padeross Anna farm project, where the educational program started at Meier Shifveth is continued; and the Nurses' Training school. The benefits which a member derives from affiliation with Junior Hadassah were also mentioned.

A musical program was presented by Bert Parks, who sang several selections, accompanied by Miss Elsie Rudderman. Mr. Parks sings over station WGST and is well known in Atlanta theatrical circles. The attendance prize was won by Miss Lottie Goncher.

By John L. Cooley.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Financial markets suffered from inertia today, meeting insufficient support to absorb light offerings, and closing with general losses.

Stocks were a trifle more active than yesterday, but volume of trading was still back at the early summer level, and with buyers aloof, and losses of 1 to 3 points were frequent. Neither shares nor wheat had enough vitality to cut down their early declines appreciably.

Rail equities looked particularly soggy, although their complaint appeared to have originated in the sluggishness of the system, rather than in the Santa Fe and Union Pacific loss 2 and 3 points, respectively. There were similar losses for American Telephone, American Can, United States Steel preferred, Case, Allied Chemical, Coca-Cola, Eastman Kodak and Corn Products.

The usual extra dividend of 25 cents a share for holders of Standard Oil of New Jersey helped oil shares 1 point, although Second Vacuum slumped a point and a half when its own quarterly payment was cut in half, or to 10 cents from 25.

With sales aggregating $22,435,000, the market bettered its record of the previous session by a substantial percentage, but the contrast with the rate of activity two months ago was striking.

Except for a handful of dividend meetings and further earnings reports, Wall Street financial news budget was largely bare of developments.

Reporting member banks of the federal reserve system revealed a further sharp contraction in loans, mostly those of the security description. This was presumably due in part to repayments by banks for recent commitments in government obligations, although a sizeable volume of other customers' borrowings was doubtless cleared.

American Metal Market reported a slight slip in steel buying, asserting that sellers attributed the decrease wholly to a desire to wait until after the election, now that the time is so short. Tin plate producers and wire mills seem to be doing fairly well.

ATLANTA SPOT COTTON.

ATLANTA, Nov. 1.—Spot cotton closed steady, unchanged at 6.05.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—(AP)—

Small opening advances in cotton today were followed by mild reaction under a continuation of moderate liquidation, the lows for the day being established in the late trading.

December contracts closed at 6.02 with the general market finishing barely steady at net losses of 3 to 5 points. The opening was 2 to 3 points higher. The south continued the principal seller.

In addition to hedging which became more active, the cotton market there was moderate December liquidation which was being absorbed by spot interest. The opening was a fair demand from Japan was reported on the spot, but otherwise quiet and steady conditions were indicated.

A private crop indication made the estimated yield 1,026,000 bales. Thus far three end-of-crop estimates have been published averaging 11,586,000 bales, and representing an increase of 247,000 bales over the average of the same authorities a month ago.

Liverpool cables reported calling attention to the fact that business in cottons was difficult owing to the spread of labor uncertainties. Exports today, 50,207, making 2,077,901 so far this year. Port receipts, 89,300. United States port stocks, 4,302,240.

GOUGH HOUSING FIRM TO GET FEDERAL LOAN

R. F. C. Also Approves Loan for Sewer System for Bowling Green, Ky.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—(UP)—For the first time in history the federal government today loaned money to aid in purging a city of slums.

The Reconstruction Finance Corporation announced today that it had approved a loan of $3,000,000 to the Hillside Housing Corporation of New York to build model apartments for 1,581 families in that teeming section of New York city known as the Bronx.

The loan is the first of three expected to be made to rid the lower east side of its slum area—the largest in the United States—and the largest for generations has ranked as a sociological problem.

Model apartments, complete with all modern facilities will be erected amid old tenements. Corporation officials said they are hopeful similar loans may be made to construct neighborhood units of low rental apartments in Queens and Brooklyn.

Loans to eradicate slums in Ohio, Texas, New Jersey, Illinois and Alabama probably will be made once pending state laws necessary for such loans are enacted, authorities here indicate.

The slums loan was one of seven self-liquidating loans totaling $9,845,500. The projects are in five different states and will provide housing for 4,690 men.

Twenty-four self-liquidating loans made by the corporation aggregate $134,635,000. These projects will be constructed in 17 states.

A further relief loan of $264,575 to Michigan to alleviate distress in three counties, two townships and two cities of that state also was made.

The corporation to date has authorized $58,354,508.22 in relief loans to 32 states and Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

LIVES OF PRESIDENTS AVAILABLE IN BOOK

Those fascinating short biographies of American presidents which appeared weekly in The Constitution are now available in book form. The authors of "Our Presidents at a Glance" were so encouraged by the favorable response to the series that they arranged to put it in permanent form.

The book, printed on fine paper with a cover in color, is valuable as a textbook or reference work and should appeal to students of history. There is human interest in the struggles of these American executives. The book may be obtained by bringing 45 cents to The Constitution or mailing 50 cents to the circulation department.
